

What does it mean to discriminate against someone?

What is tolerance? What does it mean to be tolerant of others' opinions?

Can you come up with a definition for each of these words?

Prejudice

Sectarianism

Discrimination

Why should we avoid making judgements about people we don't know?

What impact could experiencing sectarianism and hate have on a person?

Article 2 of the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child says:

‘You have the right to be protected from discrimination.’

Who is responsible for protecting people from discrimination?

Why do discrimination,
sectarianism and prejudice
exist?

What can these groups of people do to put an end to discrimination and prejudice?

The police

The media

Politicians

Teachers

Us

Is it possible to show fairness, caring and love when we each have different beliefs, opinions and values?

How?

Are there solutions to sectarianism?
What might they be?
